

shake it up

Spice up your table with a set of cute and quirky salt-and-pepper shakers.

LIP SERVICE

We double-dog-dare you to resist falling in love with these magnetic smooching pooches! $12, salt-peppershakers.com

FRESH-PICKED

Make a spot on your Thanksgiving table for a set of glazed stoneware gourds. $20, williams-sonoma.com

COOL KERNELS

A duo of hand-painted corn cobs will look totally a-maize-ing with your spread! $10, neatoshop.com

BEAR IN MIND

The more you use your snow-globe shakers, the quicker you'll find the cute polar bears hidden inside. $18, modcloth.com

HANDLE IT

Pass these easily across a big table. And when the weather warms up, break them out to season your food over a hot grill. $20, uncommongoods.com

BOTTOMS UP

Fill 'em up: Repurposed Red Stripe bottles hold a heaping 11.2 ounces of seasoning. $6, saltyhand.etsy.com

GRILL MASTER

Burgers and dogs may be summer staples, but a mini barbecue salt-and-pepper set keeps them around all year! $20, neatoshop.com

ACCENT MARKS

Ceramic cylinder shakers pack a New York sense of humor—look closely at the "Sawlt" and "Peppa" labels. $14, fishseddy.com

STEP RIGHT UP

Don't reach: Just wind up your robot shakers and they'll walk down the table! $20, uncommongoods.com

CHECK MATES

It's your move: Will you reach for the salt or the pepper chess piece first? $36, imliving.com for stores

